

"Craven Worthies"

or

Famous personalities, factual or fictional, past or present connected with our part of the world

1. A Settle Quaker born, Giggleswick, Edinburgh and London educated, he was a pioneer of education for working men and women. ....
2. He worked artistically for Dr Thomas Whitaker, and spent some time in a wet cave near Ingleton, which his admirer John Ruskin later described as the "horriblest place I ever saw in my life". ....
3. This violinist's creator studied at Stonyhurst, had a mother in Masongill and wrote reams. ....
4. His father was a blacksmith who had been born in Clapham, and he himself made lots of sparks later in life. ....
5. Once beyond the fringe, he feels at home in Craven. ....
6. He went to see the doctor in Settle. If he came now, he'd have to go to the Bank! ....
7. Born in that other county to the south west in 1934, he later lived, taught and was buried in Giggleswick. ....
8. Famous for recording the existence of the Malham wave. ....
9. Scion of a Langcliffe family, he held moral principles and displayed evidences of Christianity. ....
10. His love of high places flowered in Clapham. ....
11. Settle born non-conformist, father of twelve himself, father figure to many more. ....
12. Born in our area and later a strong supporter of Cromwell, he eventually became disillusioned and retired on gardening leave to Wimbledon, and to spend more time with his family. ....
13. He had a round head if not a round hand, and visited a church in Malhamdale, if his signature is to be believed. ....
14. He did not grow old in the vicarage of Burton in Lonsdale. ....
15. Inspiration for these small people may have come to their creator whilst visiting a local friend at his lakeside home. ....
16. He struck splinters from Winskill Rock. ....